

The Salt Lake Tribune.

WEATHER TODAY.
Local showers Saturday and probably Sunday.
Salt Lake Metal Prices.
Silver $9c
Lead $4.35
Copper $13.70
Spelter (St. Louis). . . . $5.25 @ 5.25

TRICKED
Love's Labor Lost. A moving picture romance. See Sunday Tribune.

VOL. LXXXVII, NO. 104.

SALT LAKE CITY, SATURDAY MORNING, JULY 26, 1913.

14 PAGES—FIVE CENTS

UNCLE SAM MAY TRY TO SETTLE WAR IN MEXICO

Embassador Wilson to Give President First-hand Information Today Regarding Situation There.

POLICY WILL THEN BE DECIDED UPON

indications That if Good Advice Fails Embargo on Munitions of War Will Be Lifted.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—While administration officials here believe that the northern rebel armies press closer to Mexico City and the federal strongholds, indications tonight were that an effort would be made by the Washington government to pursue a well defined policy before events reached a critical stage.

The first step in the formulation of a policy will be taken tomorrow when Embassador Henry Lane Wilson will bring information of the situation there. Embassador Wilson will bring information of the situation there. Embassador Wilson will bring information of the situation there.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

HENRY LANE WILSON, embassador to Mexico, who has been summoned to Washington for a conference with the president.

DOG CAPTURES MAN WANTED AS HOLDUP

Country Club Employee Beaten and Robbed; Identifies Prisoner as Assailant.

William Weidberg, an employee of the Country club, was held up and robbed of $15 at the intersection of Fifth South and First West streets at 2:30 o'clock this morning.

A half hour later W. C. Mullen, a cook, was taken to the police station by Patrolman Merritt and booked on a charge of highway robbery. On his shirt, his collar and cuffs were bloodstains.

The capture was made on Third South in front of the Metropole hotel. Mullen passed the Metropole a few minutes after the holdup occurred, and spoke to Special Officer White, who is a block watchman.

"What are you doing here at this time of the morning?" asked the special officer.

Mullen gave an answer that was not entirely satisfactory, and White attempted to arrest him. He broke away and ran, and in a few seconds the watchman's big dog had Mullen down on the sidewalk struggling vainly to free himself. White held Mullen until Patrolman Merritt arrived.

At the police emergency hospital Weidberg's injuries were dressed and he was taken to the Country club in an automobile. He is not in a serious condition.

In Mullen's pockets the police found a pawn ticket for a diamond Elin's head, which, the police believe, is one that was recently missing by I. O. Brown, a saloonkeeper.

After being put in a cell at the police station Mullen removed his collar and cuffs, washed them and tried to hide the blood on his shirt.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

Embassador Wilson has conferred with Secretary Bryan and will talk with President Wilson and will be expected to appear before the senate committee on foreign relations.

STRIKERS ARE LESS WARLIKE IN MICHIGAN

Union Leaders Have Situation Well in Hand and Presence of Militia Tends to Preserve Order.

STATEMENT ISSUED ON BEHALF OF MEN

Governor Ferris Decides to Stay Away From District Unless Lives and Property Are in Danger.

CALUMET, Mich., July 25.—Reports that Governor W. N. Ferris would come to Houghton tonight to help arrange a settlement of the strike of the 15,000 copper mine employees in the northern peninsula brought out an unofficial statement tonight from the mine managers that they would welcome the governor's presence.

Any plans for arbitration under the direction of the governor were soon dispelled, however, by the announcement that the governor had no present intention of coming to the copper country or of withdrawing the militia, which is protecting the mines against any further outbreak of the strikers.

The following telegram was sent to the governor's office in Lansing this afternoon by C. F. Mahoney, vice president of the Western Federation of Miners:

"We respectfully request that you come here and investigate the industrial dispute in the copper mining district and use your good offices to effect a settlement and to direct that the troops be used to preserve peace instead of to operate the mines, as seems to be the present intent."

No Sign of Arbitration.

The company managers stated unofficially that they, too, would welcome the governor, but would give no intimation that proposals to arbitrate the strike would be accepted by them.

They said this would be construed by the strikers as a tacit recognition of the union.

Disorders occurred spasmodically in the outlying districts of the mining country today, but in no case did the union members manifest the spirit which appeared in the attack upon Calumet and Hecla properties yesterday.

A call for troops came from the south range when union sympathizers drove away the sheriff's deputies at the Baltic, Trimountain and other mines, but an investigation by militia commanders convinced them that the situation was not serious enough to require the presence of state soldiers.

It was the consensus of opinion

(Continued on Page Two.)

MULHALL ABOUT TO BREAK DOWN UNDER STRAIN

"For God's Sake, Do Have Mercy if You Can," Exclaims Lobbyist During Examination.

WITNESS IS GIVEN REST UNTIL MONDAY

Attorneys for Manufacturers Will Be Allowed to Cross-examine Former Agent to a Limited Extent.

WASHINGTON, July 25.—With only about 1000 more of Martin N. Mulhall's letters to be read into the record the senate's lobby investigating committee adjourned today until Monday, expecting to wind up the correspondence of the "lobbyist." Toward the close of the day's session Mulhall showed the effects of the strain he has been under. He became confused during the reading of one letter, and when Senator Walsh suggested that he needed a rest, exclaimed:

"I'm just about broke down. For God's sake, do have mercy if you can. I don't want to say I'm breaking down, but I don't want to answer questions if you'll let me go."

Chairman Overman announced today that attorneys for the National Association of Manufacturers and the American Federation of Labor would be allowed to question the witness through the committee, providing they submit questions twenty-four hours beforehand and receive the committee's approval.

Nelson Protested.

Senator Nelson had a talk with the Democratic members before the decision was announced and it is known that he protested vigorously against allowing Mulhall's story to stand without examination by the lawyers for the organizations involved.

At the hearing today a sharp debate occurred among members of the committee about whether foreign manufacturers and importers had influenced tariff reductions in the present bill.

Mulhall caused a mild sensation by swearing that a list of repeaters from New York had been offered him in the Sixth New Jersey campaign against William Hughes in 1910 by a Mr. Conklin, who he said, was a Republican county chairman in that district.

"I refused them," Mulhall said. "He told me both sides used them."

Heavy Expense Account.

Several of Mulhall's expense accounts about the time of the 1910 elections showed large amounts paid for work at the polls. He swore he had not paid any of the money directly to voters. He said it had gone to party workers.

Mulhall produced a letter, dated December 14, 1910, to James E. Emery, purporting to be signed by A. C. Marshall, relating to the selection of a site for a new postoffice at Dayton, O.

The letter said: "The matter is well advanced toward a settlement, but is being delayed by a speculative movement represented by James M. Cox, M. C."

Mr. Marshall and other officials of the W. C. A. are interested in the favorable report which has been made to Secretary MacVeagh by Assistant Secretary Charles D. Hilles, because it finds a market for the present W. C. A. building.

"I presume you have some knowledge of the matter through Mr. Kirby's correspondence and interview with Mr. Hilles, and possibly through the influence with MacVeagh or President Taft."

Hilles Favorable.

"Mr. Hilles has reported officially in favor of this property and in strong terms, it is said. The secretary of the treasury is also understood to be favorable, and it looked a month ago as if the Hilles report would be promptly approved. The appropriation for the purchase of land ($310,000) has been made; also for the erection of the building."

"Action is being delayed and the W. C. A. site opposed in the interest of property owners and real estate owners who favor another location. Mr. Cox advocated prompt action so as to insure early completion of the building, which is greatly needed, until recently. He now favors delaying action until Mr. Hilles retires, March 1, and advocates having the purchase made by advertisement proceedings, as affording a chance for the sale of the competing property."

Mulhall received a letter from Bird on January 25, protesting against the erection of dry docks and the install-

(Continued on Page Two.)

$10,000,000 Is No Key to Joy

Rich Wife Pays for Divorce

Declares Husband Was Stingy

MRS. HULL MCLAUGHRY, who can vouch for the fact that gold is not the open sesame to a peaceful life.

She Takes Her Children and Goes to the Country to Live in Quiet.

By International News Service.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 25.—Mrs. Hull McLaughry has taken her two children and gone to her place at Galt—minus her husband. He has received the $300,000 agreed upon, and she has her divorce, and the $10,000,000 left her by her father, "Lucky" Baldwin.

And thereby hangs a story as old as the hills and yet with an angle that gives it a new flavor, for it was the advent of the huge fortune that started the trouble. McLaughry, according to his wife, did not want to spend. He was penurious.

In the testimony she accused him of cruelty—a most extraordinary brand of cruelty, for she said his atrocity consisted of objecting to the price she paid for trivial household foodstuffs.

In spite of assertions by each party that never, never would they sell their children for cash, the husband accepted the $300,000, with the provision that the children may visit him at convenient seasons, both parties promising to refrain from kidnapping.

According to the evidence, McLaughry's principal occupation at his home was to find fault with his wife or ridicule her. He objected to everything, from the price she paid for prunes to the manner in which she dressed her hair. Mrs. McLaughry became somewhat accustomed to this, she said, and patiently endured it. She said that after she came into her $10,000,000 estate she hoped her husband would not be so penurious, but that instead of permitting her to enjoy her wealth, and enjoying it with her, he took her to task for paying 20 cents a pound for prunes when he said that 8-cent prunes were good enough for any family.

Then he insisted that instead of pure olive oil on their table, cottonseed oil would serve the purpose.

Mrs. McLaughry said that when she married she knew nothing of cooking or household work, and attempted to teach herself out of a cookbook. Knowing that she was not an expert,

(Continued on Page Two.)

FLEE, SAYS MRS. EKMAN TO ANDERSON

Confessed Child Slayer Intimates She Will Make Important Revelations When Assured Former Husband Has Left the United States.

MURDER EXHIBITS HORRIFY EKMAN

Visits Police Station and Identifies Articles in Trunk That Held Body of Murdered Girl; Anderson Traced by Inspector Carlson.

After intimating that the full story of the murder of her daughter, Frances Violet Williams, had not been told, Mrs. Minnie Ekman yesterday said she was anxious to warn her first husband, C. L. Anderson, that he should depart from the United States as soon as possible. August Ekman, her present husband, who interviewed his wife in the county jail last night, declares she made this statement to him.

Both in a letter which she delivered to Ekman Thursday, and in conversation yesterday, Mrs. Ekman promised that some day she would tell him more about the tragedy, he says. According to Ekman she asked him if he would post a letter to her mother that the latter might write to Anderson, warning him to leave the country.

Promises Revelations.

"My wife told me," said Ekman yesterday, after his visit to the county jail, "that she would tell me more about the murder and more about Anderson at some other time. She then said that she wanted to have her mother write to Anderson to leave the United States at once and she added that as soon as she knew he was gone she would give more information concerning the murder."

According to Ekman, his wife admitted to him yesterday that she received a letter from Anderson on Tuesday, the day of the murder, telling her of his intention to come to her.

"She told me," said Ekman, "that the letter had arrived on Monday and that she found it waiting for her when she got home Tuesday morning from Kemmerer, where she had come to see me."

The conversation between Ekman and his wife in the county jail yesterday afternoon was conducted partly in English and partly in the Finnish tongue. Ekman and his wife speak English brokenly and the two were repeatedly warned by Deputy Sheriff R. M. Beckstead, who was present, that all talk must be in English. For a few minutes after each warning the conversation would drag and then there would be an evident effort on the part of the one or the other to make a clearer statement and the Finnish language would be used for a moment.

Anderson Is Traced.

A further development of the case was the positive statement by Inspector Carlson that Anderson had left the city, although the police official said that late yesterday afternoon he had learned the address of the missing man.

At the earnest solicitation of the confessed murderers, Attorneys George B. Hancock and Claude T. Barnes have again taken hold of the case. Mr. Hancock said last night that his firm drew out of the case only after Anderson had failed to keep his word on several occasions. Attorney Hancock visited Mrs. Ekman at the county jail last night, at her request, and agreed to represent her in the future, provided he should not have to deal through Anderson.

Meeting Affectionate.

The meeting between Ekman and his wife yesterday was marked by an exhibition of tenderness on the part of both. While trying to confine themselves to English as they had been requested to do, they were awkward and constrained, but frequently when a swift sentence of Finnish was wedged into the conversation the face

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)

(Continued on Page Two.)